

Apply now for Making His'tory!

Making His'tory program brings together 10 – 15 young men to work with two Groundswell male artists in discussing and identifying issues and conditions impacting young men today. The program culminates in the creation of a large-scale summer mural that addresses a chosen topic. This year's topic will be "Role Models and the Male Stereotype."

Making His'tory will meet 4pm – 7pm, Friday May 18 & Friday May 25

To be considered for the program, please fill out the attached form and forward to:

Groundswell
Attn: Jess Poplawski
Email: jess@groundswellmural.org or
Fax: 718-254- 9783

DEADLINE: May 14, 2012 at 4pm

For more information: 718-254-9782 or jess@groundswellmural.org

2012 Making His'tory Application

First Name: _____ Last Name: _____

Age: _____ Birth date: _____ Ethnicity: Asian__ African Am__ Latino__ Arab__ White__
Other__

Grade: _____ School: _____ School Borough: _____

Neighborhood you live in: _____

Mailing Address: _____ Apt #: _____

City/State: _____ Zip: _____

Phone: _____ (home) _____ (cell)

Email: _____

Parent/Guardian: _____ Phone: _____

Making His'tory program brings together 10 – 15 young men to work with two Groundswell male artists in discussing and identifying issues and conditions impacting young men today. The program culminates in the creation of a large-scale summer mural that addresses a chosen topic. This year's topic will be "Role Models and the Male Stereotype."

Please answer the following questions to demonstrate your readiness:

Why is it important to you to be in Making His'tory?

What do you hope to gain from participating in Making His'tory?

Please list all Groundswell programs you've participated in:

Mail or email completed applications by May 14, 2012 at 4pm to:
Groundswell, 540 President Street, Suite 1A, Brooklyn NY 11215; jess@groundswellmural.org